

January 2022 through March 2022 North Carolina Declinations

5 April 2022

Organization Name	Primary Contact	Request Date	Request Amount	Notes
Note in the Pocket Suite 103-168 9650 Strickland Road Raleigh, NC 27615	Ms. Sarah Caldwell Development Director	10/25/2021 20220003	$0.00	LOI toward support of their “Clothed in Confidence” clothing distribution program. By working with social workers from Wake County Public Schools and other human service agencies, this non-profit distributes free clothing to children and adults in Wake County, NC. No known family interest. X
CASA/North Carolina P.O. Box 12545 Raleigh, NC 27605	Ms. Emma Hansen Grants and Communications Manager	10/28/2021 20220008	$9,900.00	Request for funding of their Housing Solution Fund which would support three CASA households for one full year. CASA serves people living with disabilities, veterans, and low-income families with children by providing access to stable, affordable housing in Wake, Orange, and Durham Counties. No known family interest. PD: 10-30-20
North Carolina Employee Ownership Center P.O. Box 1048 Durham, NC 27702	Ms. Guenevere Abernathy Executive Director	11/24/2021 20220021	$0.00	Informational letter regarding this educational non-profit that is dedicated “to protecting jobs, increasing community wealth, and creating a more vibrant, inclusive economy” in the State of North Carolina through educating business owners and their advisors on the benefits of employee ownership via Employee Stock Owners Plans. No known family interest. X
Youth Villages / Durham Office Ste. 120 1822 E NC Hwy. 54 Durham, NC 27713	Mr. Jason West Development Manager	11/1/2021 20220023	$50,000.00	LOI for support of their LifeSet program which supports young adults, ages 17-22, in North Carolina as they exit the foster care, juvenile justice, and/or mental health systems and transition into adulthood by helping them develop independent living skills needed to support themselves. See JJK/JFT’s April 2021 emails in Blackbaud. Similar to past FMKF grantee, Roots and Wings, and CASAMS’s Fostering Futures program, Youth Villages is providing a much-needed service for youth “aging out.” Might be worth pursuing or, minimally, keeping on our radar. X JJK 2/2/22 comment: Will add to our "radar" list.

Organization Name	Primary Contact	Request Date	Request Amount	Notes
Learning Together 568 E. Lenoir Street Raleigh, NC 27601	Ms. Mary Kay Kennedy Director of Development	12/8/2021 20220033	$25,000.00	LOI to support their Super-Inclusive Pre-K Education Program designed for children 18-months to 5 years of age with or without delays or disabilities throughout Wake County. This non-profit “envision a future where children of all abilities and backgrounds have access to high-quality, equitable education and resources.” Their inclusive classroom setting incorporates a social-emotional and academic curriculum providing skills to improve their interpersonal relationships, manage their emotions, and learn self-regulating behavior. Special education instruction, speech therapy, occupational therapy, and physical therapy are also offered. No known family interest. FMKF not looking to expand the education docket. X
Hall of Care Home Care Agency P.O. Box 561724 Charlotte, NC 27256	Ms. Debra Hall Executive Director	1/6/2022 20220041	$10,000.00	Informational letter regarding this community-based, not-for-profit organization that provides home care services for the elderly, disabled individuals, and veterans throughout the city of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County. No known family interest. FMKF not looking to expand the human services docket. X
I AM Outreach Ministry 5101 Cross Cut Place Knightdale, NC 27545	Ms. Gretchen O'Shay Grant Writer	2/1/2022 20220059	$5,000.00	LOI for general operating support. This non-profit is a faith-based drug rehabilitation program in NC for men 18 years and older. Their mission is to “introduce hope and healing to individuals with life-controlling problems through a personal, loving relationship with Jesus Christ.” Their 9-month residential program provides mentoring, vocational, and life-skills training at no cost to the individual or their family. No known family interest. X