

F. M. Kirby Foundation Welcomes Communications and Operations Associate

The F. M. Kirby Foundation is pleased to announce that Gina Beviglia joined the organization, effective September 6, 2022, as a Communications and Operations Associate. Gina joins the Foundation after serving as an F. M. Kirby Foundation summer intern in 2021. She is a recent graduate of Lafayette College where she received a Bachelor of Arts in English and philosophy. During her time at Lafayette, Gina served as the Student Representative to the Lafayette College Board of Trustees, the Student Government Director of Marketing and Public Relations, and an Admissions Ambassador.

“Over the course of the last year, Gina demonstrated her ability to think critically, write clearly, and collaborate well with others. She added value to our work in every project she took on, and we are excited to have her support the Foundation as we prepare for several new initiatives,” said Justin Kiczek, Executive Director.

“Gina was an exceptional intern, and we are excited for her to join the F. M. Kirby Foundation on a full-time, permanent basis. As the Foundation seeks to elevate the work of its grantees while updating our technology systems and processes, Gina’s skillsets and knowledge will prove essential,” said Laura Virkler, Chairperson of the Board.

Along with communications and operations responsibilities, Gina will provide support for the Foundation’s Arts and Culture grantmaking.
